"Ruins Of The Old"

Ruins lie before my eyes
Left here by those that passed
Still repeats day by day
Tomorrow can't always hold
The lifeblood to go on, continue
As we take from the old
We lose, no gains-endtime cannot be changed
They didn't see our lives before
When this decay began
All that we breathe today
No way to purify
The lifeblood to go on, continue
As we take from the old
We lose, no gains-endtime cannot be changed
These ruins lies before me, we still destroy it
These ruins of the old
Disguised as paradise
Left for the new to rebuild
But we cannot save
The lifeblood to go on, continue
As we take from the old
We lose, no gains-endtime cannot be changed
These ruins lies before me, we still destroy it
