I used to live like there's no tomorrow
I used to think life was only a game
Born to find that you'll be gone tomorrow
To be desolate lying in a grave

I couldn't count on the way I way feeling
My heart condemned me all the time
Then your love set me free from these feelings
And now, now I can cry

This temple's on fire
Oh he's taking me higher
This temple's on fire
It burns with a godly desire

War waged upon my soul
Since I found, I found the answer
But the victory lies in the hand of my savior
Who's leading me every step on the way
I can't count on the way that I'm feeling
My heart condemns me all the time
I know your love sets me free
From these feelings so now I can cry

This temple's on fire
Oh he's taking me higher
This temple's on fire
It burns with a godly desire

There is no power that can pvertake the blood, he shed on calvary
A sinless lamb who was led to the slaughter
Freely gave his life for me, out of love he took my place
And now, now I can cry

This temple's on fire
Oh he's taking me higher
This temple's on fire
It burns with a godly desire
