(Based on Baudelaire's art)

Nothing is like the pain going with you...
Vanishing the breeze, licking the wind...

He asked you to be sad, to be beautiful.
Bring some tears along with the past,
I like you crying, and most when your wiper
Carries a loud, dense and tortured love.
Oh, dear ( my queen ), madrigal of sorrow
Share me all your sins and bring them down

We both know your darkened heart
Only sings verses of a lonely and damned poet,
Verses of laments, spleen, beauty in rudeness
Verses received from flowers, Fleurs du Mal.
