Kick it out!
What do you want tell me, you get away from me. It makes me dizzy
What do you want dare me, you don't have dusiness. It makes me wrong
You backbiting turns into pleasure, my sorrow turns into hatred

System is cracking down, you changed me. I'm walking towards despair
Somebody is looking for my weakness now Somebody is investigated my sense of fear

Barking the enemy
Like a howling a dog, like a howling a pig
Barking the enemy
It's strange things. A laughter doesn't stop Barking the enemy
Like a howling a dog, like a howling a pig
Barking the enemy
Were you satisfied when you barked at me?

I don't hear a voice of enemy, because I don't run or hide, take it Die the thing which disturbing me, go to mad. I'll defeat you
