i see you walking down the street and i really start to think that you are so uninterested and that im just a stupid kid for thinking we could be as one to you that might seem really dumb cause you dont even know my name i'll get hurt and im to blame and should i tell you how i feel can i whisper in your ear all these secrets that i have to-tell-you and all of this seems so unreal how could someone come and steal right before my eyes my dreams-are-fading you sit and talk to her all night you think youre safe and out of sight you lean in and steal a kiss and think its something that i miss let me tell you that youre wrong and thats the reason for this song to tell you im uninterested and that youre just a stupid kid your face was underneath a mask all these years of our long past and now i see your second face-is-showing you made it easier for me now that i can clearly see im not the girl for you so now-we're-through this song is not meant for revenge i dont know if we're still friends i hope you learned your lesson just know i wont be missing you
