i lie awake in my bed im worried sick about you and what you say [im worried, so worried] youre going through is what youre saying real how am i supposed to feel what is there for me to do

im lost for words
i dont know what to say
stop pushing me away

i always see you smile
you hide the pain
i know you hurt [never seen you cry] inside

so let me read your mind a glimpse of what you feel what your mind wont let your heart reveal

im lost for words

i'll walk you through the pain just say you'll be alright so i can fall [i think of you] asleep tonight
