Lyrics : Constantine

The Only Words I Have For You

I never sinned this way
I have way too much to say
Every Friday night of my life
Collared for all your crimes

You're gonna have to change
I have become this malaise
You found your life with Christ
To rationalize your lies
All your crimes

You
I looked up to you
When we both know you're beneath us

I never sinned this way
I have way too much to say
Every fuckin' night of my life
Collared for all your crimes
I never sinned this way

All your crimes
