Every time you love just a little
Take one step closer, solving a riddle
It echoes all over the world

Every time you opt in to kindness
Make one connection, used to divide us
It echoes all over the world

Ahh, ahh, ahh

Every time you choose one more morning
Goodness or meanness, life has one warning
It echoes all over the world

When a leader gets the hungry fed food
When you just make love inside your bedroom
It echoes all over the world

Ahh, ahh, ahh
Ahh, ahh, ahh
All over the world

Every time you love just a little
Take one step closer, solving a riddle
It echoes all over the world
It echoes all over the world
It echoes all over the world
It echoes all over the world

All over the world
And it echoes all over the world
And it echoes all over the world

It echoes all over the world
It echoes all over the world
It echoes all over the world
