Words and music by Dar Williams

I never thought you were the letter writing type so now I see the words you chose the way you write so I started to write back about the trees in the snow and I saw a bird, couldn't see what it was but I thought you'd know
you always surprised me

Chorus:

And if I wrote You
If I wrote You
You would know me
and you would not write me again

Verse:

And when the spring came and flooded all the streams It's like how you got the night you told me all you dreams
And when the barn roof sagged after an icy bout It's like how you got when you knew the truth was the only way out

but not the only way

Chorus:

And if I wrote you
If I wrote you
You would know me
and you would not write me again

Verse:

We drew our arms around the bastard sons
We never would drink to the chosen ones Well you know the way I left was not the way I planned
But I thought the world needed love and a steady hand so I'm steady now

Chorus:

And I'm so happy
I had to tell you
And I love you

And you will not write me again
You will not write me again
You will not write me again
