You can call me a lot of things
I'll even admit to one or two of them
I'm a little crazy, a little insane
But I owe it all to you yes I do
You can call me a liar, I'd still sleep alright
You can call me a bitch, I won't even fight
You can call me every name that you can think of Just don't call me no

Don't call me friend
Then I'd have to pretend
Cuz I see a lover when I look at you
If that's where we end, start over again
What do I have to do
To be more than a friend to you

Don't wanna hear about your lovelife
Don't wanna know about the girls you once knew
I could be a shoulder for you to cry on
As long as I could touch you too
If I could to
You might say that I'm forward
I'd even agree
A little aggressive yeah that's me
You can't fault a girl for knowing her own heart
And what she wants

Don't call me friend
Then I have to pretend
Cuz I see a lover when I look at you
If that's where we end, start over again
What do I have to do
To be more than a friend to you
What do I have to do

I could sit on your bed when you're not feeling good
Make everything better
Cuz that's what friends should do
Under the sheets I would make you see
What kind of friend I really wanna be

Don't call me friend

Then I have to pretend
Cuz I see a lover when I look at you
If that's where we end, start over again
What do I have to do
What do I have to do
Don't call me friend
Oh I have to pretend
Cuz I see a lover when I look at you
If that's where we end, start over again
What do I have to do
To be more than a friend to you
To you
What do I have to do
What do I have to do
To be more than a friend
What do I have to do
To be more than a friend
What do I have to do
To be more than a friend
