Is it killing to say what you feel?
If you got what you need, you don't have to steal
If you're in the right way, you don't have to move on
The better it seems the sooner you're gone

I know you're afraid when I get too near
But there's a beauty in the things you fear

You're just scared of the things
That you don't wanna see
You're just scared of the way you dream about me
You're just scared of my touch a little too much
It's giving you chills
Love may hurt but love don't kill

If you're out of line
It doesn't mean that you're bad
And if it drives you crazy
It doesn't mean that you're mad
I don't understand it's getting out of hand
Why can't you let it be?
Sometimes when it's right it comes so easily
I know you're afraid when I get too near
But there's a beauty in the things you fear

You're just scared of the things
That you don't wanna see
You're just scared of the way you dream about me
You're just scared of my touch a little too much
It's giving you chills
Love may hurt but love don't kill

Don't be afraid of the feeling
Don't be afraid of the healing
Don't you turn away from me
This is where I wanna be
Don't be afraid of the feeling
Don't be afraid of the healing
Don't you turn away from me

You're just scared of the things
That you don't wanna see

You're just scared of the way you dream about me
You're just scared of my touch a little too much
It's giving you chills
Love may hurt but love don't kill
