My dna is running out I am not the guy who makes you
Smile now
And when we talk it's not the same but I already lost the Gene for feeling pain

So I won't cry I will just pretend I'm still the one and That we are in love again

But when I call you are never home and I am down to six
Or seven chromosomes
But you don't care or understand how it feels to be a
Single double strand

(Chorus)

All these molecules don't make me who I am, you did

I'm still the one

(Chorus)

(Chorus)
