I'm trying hard but I got nothing to say.
Part of a plan that keeps on eating our days.
It seems that ink was made for just certain things.
But why would you? And why would I pretend?

They'll bend it up in case we branch off the way.
We got to realize, there's something left to live.
The words they say will shape the way that we think.
Were meant to fly but caught up in a cage.

Dress me up
Or break me down.
I'm gonna take it away
'Cause I don't know I don't know.
I'm gonna take it away
'Cause I don't know I don't know.

I'm trying hard but I got nothing to say.
Part of a plan that keeps on eating our days.
And I'll read between lines.
I'll cut the strings they made, I'll free my mind.

Dress me up
Or break me down.
I'm gonna take it away
'Cause I don't know I don't know.
I'm gonna take it away
'Cause I don't know I don't know.

I'm gonna take it away
'Cause I don't know I don't know.
I'm gonna take it away
'Cause I don't know I don't know.

The words they say will shape the way we think.
Were meant to fly but caught up in a cage.
It seems that ink was made for certain things.
But why would you? And why would I pretend?
