Well you can step right up You ladies and gents,
You'll get a front row seat without paying a cent, It's the signs of the time and the writing on the wall,
Tell of innocent bloodshed and the things that will befall.
Don't miss the end of the world
It's the greatest show on earth,
Most everybody's got their tickets
And they'll really get their moneys worth,
"Destroyers,
destroyers of the world"
Rumors of war and of drastic Changing weather,
Earthquakes And famine reign on the earth forever,
Prophets of old and their warnings to the earth,
Telling All mankind boldly every since its birth.
Men of the planet lust for death and power,
Nuclear warfare wills the final hour,
If you live by the sword and hasten its wrath,
Then you'll die by the sword and feel it thrash
