Been a long road to follow
Been there and gone tomorrow
Without saying goodbye to yesterday

Are the memories I hold
Still valid?
Or have the tears deluded them?

Maybe this time tomorrow
The rain will cease to follow
And the mist will fade into one more today
Something somewhere out there keeps calling
Am I going home?
Will I hear someone?
Singing solace to the silent moon

Zero gravity
Whats it like?
am i alone

Is somebody there beyond these heavy aching feat
Still the road keeps telling me to go on

Something is pulling me
I feel the gravity
Of it all
