To let truth be told
I'm quaking in my boots
At the thought of black holes
Revealing themselves
In the expanses of this old land

Speaking rhetorically
Is it possible, for a second
That some things were simply
Meant to be remained unseen... ?

Imperial conquests in white lab coats
To deny and divide a natural world
Of all it's order and all it's life
To entertain the human mind

Big bang! - in Hadron's ring
Big bang! - for humanity
Big bang! - it's the god complex
In sordid methodology

It's the big bang
That's necessary
For us to eclipse
Our mistress' might
Rock the foundations of existence
So that we are the center
So that we are life

(It's the skin of god they want
A suit of hollowed flesh
Of creators might)

Big bang! - in Hadron's ring
Big bang! - for humanity
Big bang! - it's the god complex
Existing abundantly
Big bang!

It's the big bang
That's necessary
For us to eclipse

Our mistress' might
Rock the foundations of existence
So that we are the center
So that we are life
