i'm in love with you i thought your love was true but it wasn't long until you showed your true colours your eyebrows held so high and deceiving but it was only my money you after a personality of a sphinx such a sting if you embarass me, it just shrink girlie biddy bye bye don't tell a lie why are you always denying me? all the goods I've done with no recognition you love the election but i gave you no attention 'yo anyway everyday different guys you text and then one time having sex i'd rather be crusified instead of facing me stupify so don't be mad so don't be sad everything bad about you will be revealed

CHORUS

(STUPID) Love, soft as an easy chair (STUPID) Love, fresh as the morning air (STUPID) Love, that is shared by two (STUPIDO) Love, I found in you

II

my life changed when i met you every hour every minute i wanted to see you i wouldn't eat just to talk with you on the phone between you and me until the break of dawn no one else come close a promise between us the moment you said you wanted to go back to him you told me that you still love him what else can i do? but let you go cursed by this pain but why can't i forget girls like you i love someone else until i fail i'm a prisoner for love i have for you looking in the mirror, i only see the past it hurts and becomes (what) a hole though, everything i want to tell has changed, dear i love you sincerely yours Bendeatha

III

where will we end up after this i loved you but you f*cked me over and it took so long time to recover for what you did i'm still hung over do you remember what we use to be? following me where ever i may go i served you from head to toe i even washed your bra and panties asking me if you've done something wrong ok, alright, you're right like always all your orders, i never disobeyed i listen to you more than my own mother i gave you everything you wanted ordering me like dog you deny me when you're talking to someone else to just a hot guy, you've given in already damn how stupid this heart is why did you do this to me you fought with me and left and with someone else you played with fire my entire heart broke in half Nasty Mack's heart broken into pieces i'll admit i use to love you then but now i take it back
