Time to find your mind
I see you kickin your rhyme
To be the boldest of a boring kind
I see you
They're coming to make you
The rhyme you find will be the stupid of a boring kind
I feel you comin around again
I see you comin around again
I think I wanna make you
I think you wanna make me
But I can see right through your heart
And I can change the world
And I can see right through your heart
Wrapped in cellophane
Time to find your mind
I see you bustin a rhyme
To be the boldest of a boring kind
I see you
They're coming to make you the sign of the times
That makes you the stupid of a boring kind
I feel you comin around again
I see you comin around again
I think I wanna make you
I think you wanna make me
But I can see right through your heart
And I can change the world
And I can see right through your heart
Wrapped in cellophane
See you all tonight
Say you're livin fine
See you all tonight
I see you
Say you're livin fine
I see you
Seeing you all tonight
I see you
Seeing you all tonight
I see you
Seeing you all tonight
I see you
Say you walk the line.
