I heard you've been looking for me
But you looked for trouble
You're gonna see that your words are dangerous
Your talk is cheap

So now I'm standin' here
Now I'm standin' here

You tell yourself you know what to do
And you realize that I am comin' for you
Then you'll change your mind
And run like a child when

So now I'm standin' here
Now I'm standin' here

Don't question my heart
Don't question the fire that burns inside
Don't question my heart
Don't question a heart prepare to fight

I got where I am
Because I didn't chase fame
And I seen you before
And you're all the same

Just one more mouth
Talkin' words insane
Just one more mistake
With different names

Don't question my heart
Don't question the fire that burns inside
Don't question my heart
Don't question a heart prepare to fight

I heard you're lookin' for me
I'm standin' here
Still standin' here

I'm standin' here
Still standin' here

Don't question my heart
Don't question the fire that burns inside
Don't question my heart
Don't question a heart prepare to fight
