Hot day in the summer sun
It's a hundred and twenty-one
Vat tanks and machine guns
Another day and another run

Looking for a good place to hide
Forty-five on the strong side
Me and my buddies haven't realized
It's just a job, we don't wanna die

I miss my family
(I miss my girl)
I miss my friends
(And my old world)
I hope I'll make it back again, yeah

(Bang, bang, bang)
Another body goes
(Down in flames)
Another mother will
(Cry his name)
Another coffin will
(Hold his remains)

(Bang, bang, bang)
Another body goes
(Down in flames)
Another preacher will
(Say his name)
Another coffin will
(Hold his remains)
Until judgment day

Focusing and staying relaxed
Before I have a damn heart attack
Stay alive and stay intact 'cause
God knows I wanna make it back

This can't be the end for me
I gotta lot, at stake, to do you see
Raise my kids and my family
I pray to God, He's protecting me

I miss my family
(I miss my girl)
I miss my friends
(And my old world)
I hope I'll make it back again

(Bang, bang, bang)
Another body goes
(Down in flames)
Another mother will
(Cry his name)
Another coffin will
(Hold his remains)

(Bang, bang, bang)
Another body goes
(Down in flames)
Another preacher will
(Say his name)
Another coffin will
(Hold his remains)

I miss my family
(I miss my girl)
I miss my friends
(And my old world)
I hope I'll make it back again, yeah

(Bang, bang, bang)
Another body goes
(Down in flames)
Another mother will
(Cry his name)
Another coffin will
(Hold his remains)

(Bang, bang, bang)
Another body goes
(Down in flames)
Another preacher will
(Say his name)
Another coffin will
(Hold his remains)
Until judgment day
