"Never Let You Go"

I thought I'd be fine living without you
Because you wanted something that I couldn't give
But if I'd knew then what I'd go through
That every time I close my eyes
I see your face and I realize

Because I should've never let you go
And I feel it still burning in my soul
There's no deeper pain
Knowing every day
That I'm never going to get you back
And I'm still living with that regret
Every night in this bed on my own
I never should have let you go

You walked away and I still can't blame you
I know that you found what you needed in me
There's no somebody else I hang on to
The memories I've lost
Is all that's left here because

Because I should've never let you go
And I feel it still burning in my soul
There's no deeper pain
Knowing every day
That I'm never going to get you back
And I'm still living with that regret
Every night in this bed on my own
I never should have let you go

And it's hell knowing what I lost
And that day I pay the cost
I'll wake up and realize you are gone

Because I should've never let you go
And I feel it still burning in my soul
There's no deeper pain
Knowing every day
That I'm never going to get you back
And I'm still living with that regret
Every night in this bed on my own

I never should have let you go

I never should have let you go

No I never should have let you go
