Oh no, no

All the pain that haunts me still
And all the shame surrounding you
Is now the past that I can't kill
Forever wrapped around me

And all the sadness was your life
Are now the things that I can't hide
It's just a fear that's deep inside
From all the years of hiding

There's a ghost that's inside of my mind
And a pain that is haunting me still
So I can never go back and rewind, never
And I can never have peace or be still, be still

Somebody, somebody, somebody take this away
Somebody, somebody, somebody take this away

But I have lived for you
And everything single little thing you do
But I have lived for you
And I won't kill myself for loving you

They took you far away from me
So I could never find you
They made me blind but I can see
The loaded gun behind you

The end of all that this boy knew
Inside of me was the inside of you
I miss the way we used to be
When I was what would bring you through

Somebody take this away
Somebody take this away
Somebody take this away
Somebody take this

But I have sinned for you
And everything single little thing you do

But I have lived for you
And I won't kill myself for loving you

Somebody, somebody, somebody take this away
Somebody, somebody, somebody take this away
Somebody, somebody, somebody, somebody

But I have lived for you
And everything single little thing you do
But I have lived for you
And I won't kill myself for loving you

'Cause I've lived for you
And everything single little thing you do
But I can't rise above your lies
That you have gladly made your life
And I won't kill myself for loving you
