I've been roaming these streets trying to find my beat
But i just can't seem to get on track
And i've begun to think this ain't the place for me
I can't pull a rabbit out of a hat
Yeah i will miss my friends here in NYC
But i gotta follow my heart
And its just get on a plane, baby go to LA
And make a brand new start

Hello California here i come
Got my shades on common common give me some love
Go California how you doin tonight
Hello California here i am
I'm an east coast girl with big heart and big plans
Go California rot me,
I feel i can take almost any adventure now

Check out California with the sun and the sand
This place is going straight to my head
And all the pretty boys i see everywhere They make me never want to go to bed
Hey baby meet me tonight on Hollywood and Vine
I wanna rock this brand new world
I'll never forget where i'm coming from
But tonight i wanna be a California Girl

Hello California here i come
Got my shades on common common give me some
love
Go California how you doin tonight
Hello California here i am
I'm an east coast girl with big heart and big plans
Go California rot me,
I feel i can take almost any adventure now

[mixing]

Hello California here i come
Got my shades on common common give me some
love
Go California how you doin tonight

Hello California here i am
I'm an east coast girl with big heart and big plans
Go California rot me,
I feel i can take almost any adventure now
