You said, what you had to say, would come as a surprise
You were right, honey, you were right You told me, nothing I could do was gonna change your mind
I knew then, you'd be right again

But, when you said we were through, I knew that wasn't true

That's where you're wrong, that's where you're wrong Deep down inside love lingers on, it won't let go, it's still too strong
That's where you're wrong

I tell myself, I have to learn to leave the past behind Looking back, I'm sure of that I say, I'd be much better off, without you on my mind Girl, it's true but what can I do

When I think these thoughts will end, my heart says, think again

That's where you're wrong, that's where you're wrong
Deep down inside love lingers on, it won't let go, it's
still too strong
That's where you're wrong

Deep down inside love lingers on, it won't let go, it's
still too strong
Stop and consider my heart if you think you're gone
That's where you're wrong
(That's where you're wrong)
That's where you're wrong
