Just look at you and me
Yea we've had some fun
Don't you agree?
Now that we have come this far
Time to stop the game, and make a start

I want you to take this seriously
But all you do is show inhumanity
You hurt me oh, but I can't hurt you back
Baby don't you know I've got more heart than that

I can't hide the way I feel
Help me please, baby please help me

We've reached the borderline
Nowhere to go but down
We can't turn our world around
We've reached the borderline
Maybe it's not too late
Only we can choose our fate

I tried but I can't loose this crazy pain
I wish that it would go, so I can live again
You may or may not know that I'm beside myself
Oh you know there's only you and no one else, whoa

I can't hide, it's sad you see
Something that could feel so good
May never be

We've reached the borderline
Nowhere to go but down
If we can't turn our love around
We've reached the borderline
Got everything to gain
If only we can stop the pain

The sky is falling
Falling again, hey

We've reached the borderline
Nowhere to go but down

If we can't turn our world around
We've reached the borderline
Got everything to gain
If only we can stop the pain
You've reached the boderline

Keep on reaching, keep believing
Keep on reaching, keep believing
Keep on reaching, keep believing
