So here's another story, a tale of love, a tale of hate. You talk of hope and glory but I don't know if I can wait here all alone will you ever know Hypnotised I'm sliding under but will I fall I wonder and would you stay forever
a life og love or just one day So here's another story, I sit and wait here all alone. I just can't help but worry, would you leave me standing on my own. Here all alone will you ever know Hypnotised I'm sliding under

but will I fall I wonder
