It doesn't really matter much if you think right or wrong don't even think about it breaking up a happy home you said you'd care for me said you'd be there but you're mistaken if you think i've wasted my time
you don't fool me
'cos i know what's going on the way you just walk out of here as if there where nothing wrong imagine nowhere to turn when will you see that you're mistaken if you think I've wasted my time
Your love is all
I have to hold

from this day forth
we carry on
for good or bad
you have my soul
your love is forever more Did you ever did you never did you think of me at all you'd better both start listening 'cos I'm tearing down this wall you must believe in me don't ever leave
'cos you're mistaken if you think I've wasted my time Your love is all
