A painful memory Holds my heart,
Delays the start Of healing,
Of feeling the Spirit again,
Of finding the courage Within me.

(Chorus)

I will forgive
As I was forgiven.
I'll humbly give
The gift that I've been given.
Love I've received,
I'll offer again and again.
And seek the power
He gives me,
The power deep within me
To forgive all men.
I will forgive.

A sacred memory Frees my heart,
Promotes the part Of healing,
Of heeding the Spirit again,
Of feeling the power He gives me.

(Repeat chorus)

The Savior paid the price of sin
That I could not pay alone.
He set me free
And let me feel the purest love I've known.

(Repeat chorus)

I will forgive.
