If love wants to travel to your heart, love will find a way)

I tell you, no, no mountain is too high & no peak too high to climb

& no, no place is too remote for true love to find

I know no, no river is too wide, no matter what people say

Lord, if love wants to travel to your heart, love will find a way

Oh the mountains, oh the valleys, oh the streams love would climb

Seekin' a place in your heart

If there are 2 people love wants to combine

Nothin' can keep them apart

I know that no, no river is too wide, no matter what people say

If love wants to travel to your heart, love will find a way

I know that if love wants to travel to your heart, love will find a way
