You say, you can't stand to be tied so close to a lover
Yeah, ooh, you feel like a prisoner
And you wanna find someone who will let you out

Can't you see the heartbeat that you know so well
Is better than some strange one you're lookin' for Say, you never know that strange one just might be me, yeah

Can't you see you have everything your heart desires
So why you want more
If you had everything your heart desires
Would you still want more

You have everything your heart desires
Why do you want more
If you had everything your heart desires
Would you still want more

You tell me your best friend's world seem beautiful
But don't be fooled
It's nice work if you can get it Yeah, what goes on behind closed doors you don't know

Maybe she cries herself to sleep every night
Sorry that the heartbeat that you know so well Ain't what she's lookin' for
You never know that strange heart just might be me

Maybe you have everything your heart desires
So why you want more
If you had everything your heart desired
Would you still want more

You have, oh, everything your heart desires
Why do you want more
If you have everything your heart desires

Maybe you'll confess, girl you'll see
If you want the world, if you want the world think of me
No words can help so don't be sad, oh no

'Cause baby what you want is what, is what you have hey, hey

Do you still love me?

(You have everything your heart desires)
Everything your heart desires
So why you want more
(If you have everything your heart desires)
I can give you anything you want

(You have everything your heart desires)
As long as you know you got to me, you got the key to me
(If you have everything your heart desires)
I ain't gonna let you go, no, no, no
(If you have everything your heart desires)
