Dial your number, tape reply
"I'm not at home right now
But leave your name
And I will call you Friday night
Call you Friday goodbye"

Hearing you and waiting
Make the days drag slowly
On the phone, oh no the tape again
Don't say, "Not at home", no way

Friday let me down tonight
Friday let me down tonight
Friday let me down, down tonight

Weekend comes I try again
I hear the same recording hasn't changed
"I'm not at home right now
Leave your name, I'll call you"

Friday let me down tonight
Friday let me down tonight
Friday let me down, down tonight

Friday let me down tonight
Friday let me down, down tonight
Friday let me down tonight
Friday let me down, down tonight

Friday let me down tonight
Friday let me down, down tonight
Friday let me down tonight
Friday let me down, down tonight
