Does anyone know what love can cost It'll take you so high then leave you lost
Is it a mystery that runs too deep for such a simple heart Can anyone stop the hands of time and put back the loving in your eyes Though it's his name I hear when you are sleeping I'll pretend it's mine

(chorus)

When they ask me how long I'm gonna love you
If the road to my heart will always stay true
I'll say forever
I'll say Forever For You
When they ask will I stand right there beside you and they don't see you and me the way that I do I'll say forever
I'll say Forever For You

A rose is a rose by any name but a thorn will still cut you just the same I'm losing your love I know so sad the feeling
I can tell somebody's stealing Stealing away your heart

- Repeat chorus-

I don't know if I should tell you how you live in my heart There's no room for another
If you leave me now
My heart would not recover
