Girl we've come together and then we've felt the sadness

That comes when it's through
We walk our own way in a world turned blue

And oh it's true that I can't see rhyme or reason
And when feeling's out of season, what can I do?
Except try to walk away with you, oh oh oh

You and I are halfway there
On some road to somewhere
You and I are halfway there
Can't we go all the way

We were born in the brave new world
Taught to be modern little boys and girls
Then they tried to take our imagination away

When the guns are firing somewhere
And there's evil in the air, what can we do?
Except try, try to say what's true

You know what's true, know what's true?
This is true girl

You and I are halfway there

On some road to somewhere
You and I are halfway there
Can't we go all the way
You and I are halfway there

Oh baby, we must go on
Oh girl, we can't turn back
Oh baby, we can't retreat
Oh girl, we've gotta attack

Oh, be here right now
Oh honey, I'll be here for you
Oh girl, my love won't die
Oh baby, we've gotta break, break on through

You and I are halfway there
On some road to somewhere
You and I are halfway there
Can't we go all the way

You and I are halfway there
On some road to somewhere
You and I are halfway there
Can't we go all the way

Baby we are so close
Oh baby, love me like I've never been loved before
Honey, you're the one
C'mon, c'mon
