I let you escape
Slip through my fingers
We made our mistakes
But memories linger

Each time I turn a corner, I swear I see your face
But I'm standing here alone in the wonder
What I really needed, what made me run away?
Was it just somebody spell, I was under?

We all love on borrowed time, tomorrow's flying blind
And life's too short to be living without you
Life's too short
Life's too short

You laughed at my jokes
Broke down my defenses
My heart just awoke
And brought back my senses

I've got my motor running, it's all that I can do
'Cause every road I'm taking is leading back to you

We all love on borrowed time, tomorrow's flying blind
And life's too short to be living without you
Life's too short
Life's too short

I give in, I can't go, it alone
Yeah, I'm done now I know that you're gone
I need someone to save me
Life's too short, too short

I give in, I can't go, it alone
Life's too short, to be living without you
Life's too short
I give in, I can't go, it alone
Life's too short, can't be living without you
Life's too short

I give in, I can't go, it alone
Life's too short, I can't live without you

Life's too short
I give in, I can't go, it alone
Life's too short, to be living without you, you
