You're my jail cell,
An ulcer on my heart.
A motor in my head,
That just wont start.
I'm a parasite,
Sucking on your soul.
The mark you left,
Is now a black hole.

And if I die today,
A lonely creature.
You will be the only one,
Missing from the picture.

My skull is collapsing,
Piercing my brain.
I'm just a lost dog,
Sitting in the rain.
You're my jail cell,
An ulcer on my heart.
A motor in my head,
That just wont start.

And if I die today,
A lonely creature.
You will be the only one,
Missing from the picture.
