I can see you in my dreams you run away from me I miss the time we did not have but the rain keeps washing my sadness away
I know you'll still be in my mind
I know you'll still be in my heart
I close myself in my castle never to come out to give vent to my evil thoughts to remain there in shadows in forgetfulness I wander looking for the time I am dreaming of I make circles around old places
I discover things
I know you'll still be in my mind
I know you'll still be in my heart
