Ooh
Oh, yeah, yeah
Ooh, oh woah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Sounds like the same song,
We've been friends for so long,
Girl you did me so wrong. (And I can't believe it)

Because you took what belongs,
To me and now he's gone
Demi did me so wrong (I just can't believe it)

There's a known unspoken rule, between love and friends and
But I'm over it, it's cool (you deserve each other)
Cause you did me so wrong,
I know I can move on,
So I wrote a new song,
And this is how it goes...

You can be with him if you choose,
But you will never fit in my shoes.
Not my Gucci shoes (no)
Not my Jimmy Choo's (no)
Not my Prada's or my Dolce & Gabbana shoes
You can never be like me

So how like my new song?
Didn't take me too long
I wrote it about you because I needed you to know (I know)

I'm mad you had your own plan to come and take my man
You came into my home
Because you couldn't find your own

And I can not insult an injury (So just be quiet) Cause I know you wanna be like me (you wanna be like me)
Don't deny it!

Because you did me wrong
I know I can move on
So I wrote a new song,
And this how it goes...

You can be with him if you choose,
But you will never fit in my shoes.
Not my Gucci shoes (no)
Not my Jimmy Choos (no)
Not my Prada's or my Dolce & Gabbana shoes
You can never be like me

You can be with him if you choose,
But you will never fit in my shoes.
Not it my Chanel's (no)
Or my YSL's (no)
Sarah Gamo heels
Or Alexander heels

I had to let it, let it, let him go, let it go
Because you know, that I know, that you know, you
can't be like me
Can't be like me
Even though you wanna be
I know you wanna be

I had to let it, let it, let him go, let it go
Because you know, that I know, that you know, you
can't be like me
Can't be like me
Even though you wanna be
I know you wanna be
Be like me

You can be with him if you choose,
But you will never fit in my shoes.
Not it my Chanel's (no)
Or my YSL's (no)
Sarah Gamo heels
Or Alexander heels

But you can never be like me

Hah, you can't be like me.
