First you, take a little time. to make sure I see you. then I think that you will be mine. I really need you. to be with me, till we die. but it's like you don't need me why?

Everytime that I see you coming down the hall! it makes me think that I will fall! but you just stop and say hello but I can't wait. but oh, I think that I am falling for you.

First you, want to talk to me. make sure I'm with you. then I think that you will see. that I kinda like you. we need to be together till we die, but it's like you don't like me why?

Everytime that I see you coming down the hall! it make me think that I will fall! but you just stop and say hello but I can't wait. but oh, I think that I am falling for you.

Whenever you come near, I have to disappear. my heart starts to pound like no tommorow. whenever you walk by, I think I have to cry. my heart strats to make me think of you.

Everytime that I see you coming down the hall. it makes me think that I will fall. but you just stop and say hello. but I can't wait. but oh, I think that I am falling for you.
