Ra3'm e7'telaf el-lesan, we enn elbashar, alwan, metfara2een, fil nawaya welshakl, wel 2adyan

In spite of the difference in the language, color, goals, race, shape, and religion

laken elahna wa7ed, rab elbashar wa7ed

But our god is one - the god of people is one bel7ob gama3an, we kolena ensan

With the love, we are all people we ta3alo fi 7odn elneil, we 7adaret wady elneil and come to the Nile river, the shores of valley of the Nile fat7een a7dana 2olobna beyotna we bardo 2aleil we opened our hearts and our houses and that is not little 2asmar we kan fanan

asmar was a dark skinned artist

3al7elm 3eino teban and paid attention to the dreams in his eyes4.

shams elsaba7 ter3ah the morning sun looked after him we fil mesa 7ekayat and in the evenings there were stories

7elem yekoon la3eb, saba7 eltaree7' shahed

The dreams play as history watches 3ala nogom samra, katab eltaree7' rewayat it wrote the stories of history on the night stars

Africa 2ard el7'eir

Africa is the land of the wealth awladna lessa be7'eir our sons are still in good condition malnash 3'eir 7odnek shamsek 7obbek leina kebeir we have nothing but your embrace, your sun and your great love for us
