(Red Lane - Wayne Kemp)

Here I stand with my finger on his doorbell
My mind goes back to what I did him last night
I finally talked his wife into leaving him
And I'm just here to convince my conscience that it's alright
I can see my old friend sittin' there just starin'
And his little boy's crying words just welded in my mind.

But haven't you heard daddy's gone crazy
And haven't you heard mama is gone
And either way I am the loser
And I've been crying all night long, haven't you heard.

Haven't you heard daddy's gone crazy
And haven't you heard mama is gone
And either way I am the loser
And I've been crying all night long, haven't you heard...
