(Mickey Newbury)

Here's to your future my darling
Here's your health and your happiness too
And here's to the end of my world
You said forever, well, here's to forever and you.

Look up dear the sky just started falling
Here's to the color so blue
And here's to the end of my world
You said forever, well, here's to forever and you.

See the stars on the ground and watch 'em fall
Hear the sound of no sound at all
But the sound of my heart's breaking in two
You said forever, well, here's to forever and you.

You said forever, well, here's to forever and you...
