(Even Stevens)

There was a time when the whole of the world
Would bother me and bring me down
It don't matter now, now that you've left me
Now all of the sudden I'm runnin' in circles
There's nothin' to lose, nothin' to gain
It's not important now, now that I'm lonely.

Looks like I'm in for stormy weather
Here it comes pourin' on me
'Round my head along my lonely shoulders.

And there was a day when the thought of you gone Wouldn't cause me think bring on the rain but memories
I hear to haunt me
So far I would go in the night like a child
Walkin' the streets hopin' to find you and ask you
How much you need me.

Looks like I'm in for stormy weather
Here it comes pourin' on me
'Round my head along my lonely shoulders...
