(Leon Payne)

If today the sun should set on all my hopes and dreams
There is one who's smiling face the Gods would see
'Cause he'll walk along beside me up those golden stairs
And they'll never never take his love from me.

What a fool I was to go and break the trust he gave
And watch his love turn to to sympathy
Well, that's the one regret I'll carry with me to my grave
And they'll never never take his love from me.

--- Instrumental ---

I'm so thankful for each golden hour of happiness
That we shared together in the used to be Someone else's arms may hold him now in uncaress
But they'll never never take his love from me.

I thought I'd make him happy if I'd step aside
But I knew his love would never set me free
And even on the day that he took another for his bride
I knew they'd never never take his love from me.

They'll never never take his love from me...
