Let's take love one day at a time
Honey, I know you've asked me many times, yeah
If I every thought of leaving you for someone else
I guess you just don't see
You mean the world to me
Im never going to hurt you my dear
Honey, did I hear you say that I don't need you?
Im half the man, woman without you hear by my side
And Im proud of you, honeslty
How do we know day to day the sun is going to rise?
Let's take love one day at a time
Baby, don't worry.
It's going to be alright
Let's take love one day at a time
Baby, don't worry
It's going to be alright.
Honey, my loves goes deeper that physical reasons
And all the time I see doubts all over your face
Is it necessary to feel that way?
Because love is forever,
But nobody knows what tommorow brings
Live for a day
Let's take love one day at a time
Baby, don't worry
It's going to be alright.
Let's take love one day at a time
Baby, don't worry
It's going to be alright.
Honey, did I hear you say that I don't need you?
And Im half the man, woman without you here by my side
And Im proud of you, honestly
So, how do we know that from day to day, the sun is going to rise?
Let's take love one day at a time
Baby, don't worry
It's going to be alright
Let's take love one day at a time
Baby, don't worry
It's going to be alright
