"Lost In Time"

In the sky the clouds they come and take me away colours bloom with your loving magic ways painted thoughts they crowd my sleepin' mind dreamin' but never knowing what to find.

You're lost in time girl well you just can't see we ride into the sunshine we love to deceive

In the starship - through the nebula's we go lookin' 'round the corners of eclipsing flow blowing away the messages of fear can't you see the love, its everywhere!

Hide inside the boulders of grey sand looking back but we just don't understand parallels of moon flickering light dancing in the waves, its out-a-sight!
