See village of descending motion chanting ride with silver potion magic power fly on the night gaze at planets of might.

Rocket through to burning sun frozen-core galaxy run glowing rays of love collide airing key-stone burnt inside.

On the pyramid of the sun along its slopes I run it smiles in the sky its peaks they make me high.

Blue oceans drifting free brought to the seas in this tranquility
my galactic entity.

The whispering torn forgiver drink rays and burn the river venture into another one towards the peaceful sun.

So bring the stars to me freak-outs are all around me and through this spacious life speeding towards the light

I travel a choosen sign the earth I change to mine on my metal moon-beam the planet mountain screams
