You got your war on science and your dusty roads
Reverse logic tricks and shadows.
Morbid fascination with the other people's souls
Like watching cars crash, your false bravado.

You try to rewrite history.
Add a little mystery.
You're still waiting for your time to come.
You're still waiting for your time to come.

Pick up pieces of velvet till you feel so sated.
Beats and treats on the concrete streets.
Well I guess I've been baited oh so.

You Try,

Try to rewrite history.
And add your own little mystery.
You're still waiting for your time to come.
You're still waiting for your time to come.

You're still waiting here.
But I won't come around my dear.

My Dear.

You're still waiting.
Oh the moment's gone.
Yeah, it's gone.

Yeah, it's gone.

Yeah, it's gone.

You try, try to rewrite history
And add your own little mystery
You try, try to bring it down on me
And add your own little mystery
You're still waiting for your time to come.

You're still waiting for your time to come.

Still waiting for your time to come.

You're still waiting for your time to come.

(Still waiting) Waiting for your time to come.

(Still waiting) Waiting for your time to come.

(Still waiting) Waiting for your time to come.
