See that girl, she got a pretty face and all Sometimes the call of the wild can make you feel like a criminal
I don't know that I shouldn't pretend
'Cause the truth hurts honey, oh it offends
I just don't know nothing, that's an absolute

What I've lost, I just can't get back
To the place, that we shared, hope you understand girl
What I've lost, I just can't get back To the place, that we shared, hope you understand, my love

"Come on open your eyes, come on open your mind?
she said
You know it's fun to rewind and replay all the things we did
What once was lost just cannot be returned What once was gone just cannot be returned
So I say

What I've lost, I just can't get back
To the place, that we shared, hope you understand girl
What I've lost, I just can't get it back
love

Oh no, can't believe that it's over, you better believe that it's over
That it's over with you
You better believe that it's over, you better believe me
'Cause it's true, true, my my my love

'Cause what I've lost, I just can't get it back To the place, that we shared, hope you understand girl
And what I've lost, I just can't get it back
love

My my love
My my love
My my love

hope you understand
Under, understand
