It's time we got this whole thing straight
A message loud and clear.
Overheat in misbelief
I have to be sincere.

They wanna put you in a celluloid
You look much better as a cartoon...boy
You're a fool for the easy romance
Head over heels given half the chance but

Who are you stamping your foot for?
Can't you see your just dragging us down
Who are you stamping your foot for?
You better get in line cause we're running out of time
again.

With shaking hands you twist your fist
Your throat is screaming raw
So simmer down
Your scowl your frown
Who are you stamping your foot for?

Your hip quick scheme

Hit parade of dreams

You'll do anything to get your foot in the door
Who are you stamping your foot for?

They wanna put you in a celluloid
You look much better as a cartoon...boy
You're a fool for the easy romance
Head over heels given half the chance but

Who are you stamping your foot for?
Can't you see your just dragging us down
Who are you stamping your foot for?
You better get in line cause we're running out of time
again.

Who are you stamping your foot for?

Can't you see your just dragging us down
Who are you stamping your foot for?
You better get in line cause we're running out of time
again.

Who are you stamping your foot for?
Can't you see your just dragging us down
Who are you stamping your foot for?
You better get in line cause we're running out of time
again.

Who are you stamping your foot for?
Can't you see your just dragging us down
Who are you stamping your foot for?
You better get in line cause we're running out of time
Again.
Again.

Again.

Who are you stamping your foot for?

Who are you stamping your foot for?

Who are you stamping your foot for?
