They'll tell me, I'm useless,
A dead man walking through this life,
I wish someone would tell me,
I'm crying wolf at least they're listening,
I feel there's nothing I can do,
Between the devil and the deep blue,
Being lost dejected,
There's no way to express it,

You're keeping me from falling,
Over my own words,
An empty room with just one chair,
Please do not disturb,

Walk with me, and take me,
Under your wing until I see,
There's no more obstruction,
In my way, I'm flying on my own,
There's so much more that I can do,
It's so much easier,
Counting on you,

You're keeping me from falling,
Over my own words,
An empty room with just one chair,
Please do not disturb
